

PRESS RELEASE

15 January 2008

Want to be on board?

Melin Homes is looking to recruit three of its residents to become Board Members.

The Board is the highest decision-making body in Melin and three out of the 15 places are reserved for residents. Members are elected by ballot and serve for a three-year term but are able to stand for re-election.

As a Board Member you will, together with your colleagues, be responsible for the financial and policy decisions of the association and for the future direction of the organisation.

Chief Executive of Melin Homes, Mark Gardner explained: "We are committed to providing quality homes and services and, having board members who are also residents, helps to ensure that our strategies and policies reflect the needs of everyone living in a Melin home."

The Board meets once a month and members may also sit on one or more sub committees. The position is unpaid but all expenses will be covered and you will receive free training to help you fulfil your responsibilities.

Please register your interest by 31st January 2008 by calling Natasha Hill-Cannan at Melin Homes on 01495 745922 or by e-mail nhillcannan@melinhomes.co.uk.
